And you will enjoy...

International Quilt Festival of Ireland 2013

You're invited to the second annual International Quilt Festival of Ireland June 7th – 9th, 2013. The festival will again be held at NUI Galway. The campus will be turned into a very special Quilter's Village. This unique concept of a Quilter's Village is an original idea and concept never before offered to the quilting community until last year. The village will feature a Town Hall, Wicked Thimble Pub, School House, Exhibit Hall, Quilter's Castle, Round Robin Restaurant, Fat Quarter's Chocolate Shop, Celtic Tea Room and many other specialty shops.

After the festival we will head-out on a tour filled with all the best Ireland has to offer, starting in Galway, including visits to Adare, Connemara, Killarney, Waterford, Kilkenny and Dublin.
